

mystery.s includes three functions, 1st add is used to calculate two numbers addition, 2nd dotheting function is used to calculate the sum of the last two numbers by resursive method. 3rd main function is the main function of the program, used to receive data and output results. Deleted some useless data to reduce running time. The program is used to calculate Fibonacci.